I Am So Sorry

To President Zelensky:
I am sorry. You are standing strong against a horrible aggression, but the president of my country chooses to praise and side with the aggressor and denigrate you, the innocent victims of this horror. I am so sorry!

To our Canadian neighbors:
I am sorry. We have had such warm and harmonious relations, and now, after showing his pompous and malicious character by insulting and belittling you as the "51st state", this idiot of a president of ours has launched a trade war, claiming that you have somehow wronged us. I am so sorry!

To Representative Ilhan Omar:
I am sorry. We have a president who is full of hate, particularly for those of other ethnicities, religions or ideologies. He has chosen to strike out at you, not because you have done anything to give him reason, but just because, in his vanity and insecurity, he deems you his "enemy". I am so sorry!

To the various news outlets:
I am sorry. You work hard against great odds, and in some cases even give your lives, to provide us with the facts and understanding of what is happening in the world, and our ignoramus of a leader just waves his hand and declares it "fake news", while delivering his own lies. I am so sorry!

To "Piggy" and all the other journalists and other people that Trump has chosen to denigrate with his foul and uncouth language:
I am sorry. We have a president who is so insecure and full of hatred that he feels he has to denigrate anyone and everyone who he feels challenges him in any way, and you have born the brunt of his callous vindictiveness. I am so sorry!

To the victims of Jeffrey Epstein:
I am sorry. Our depraved president not only took part in the crimes against you that took place in Mr. Epstein's venues, he refuses to allow the information to be made public that would almost undoubtedly prove his own guilt. I am so sorry!

To Olympian David Hern:
I am sorry. Our president, unwilling to admit to his own fallacy, decided to scapegoat you for a simple innocent act of curiosity, casting the blame for his failure upon you. I am so sorry!

To the people of Iran:
I am sorry. After destroying the agreement between our countries that you and a former U.S. president worked hard to create, he then claimed that you had to be destroyed because you were creating weapons of mass destruction. Were you? I suppose you were, since he had abrogated the treaty that you had so honorably abided by. I would be amazed if you didn't, after he pulled the rug out from under you. But then what did he do? He just simply started bombing your country and killing your people. He is a murderer and a thug, and I am so sorry!

To Ms. Goode and Mr. Pretti:
I am sorry. You were passionate and standing up for your rights as Americans, when our president's good squads violently cut you down. Were you standing against America's best interests? I don't know. But after his goons violently cut you down when you weren't injuring or threatening them in any way, our president chose to call you "terrorists", rather than decry the terror that his own mercenaries were creating. I am so sorry!

To James Comey, Jack Smith and others our president has targeted for revenge for doing your jobs:
I am sorry. You did your jobs honorably for the people of the United States, and our president has chosen to attack you, not for any impropriety on your part, but only because you had the "audacity" to do your duty and investigate his illegal activity. I am so sorry!

To my fellow Americans
I am sorry. I am sorry that our president chooses to continually lie to you and to destroy the foundations of our country in a futile effort to aggrandize himself. I am so sorry!

To the world:
I am sorry. My country has a president that is out of control, narcissistic, full of hate, and is out to tear down the foundations of civilization, democracy and decency and lift himself up as some sort of demigod. I believe I speak for most of the people of the United States when I say that Donald Trump does not represent our values. He does not express our sympathies, and he does not represent the character or intentions of most of my country. He is betraying us as well as you in his pathetic attempts at vainglory. I am so sorry!

To all:
I am sorry, and I am ashamed that this idiot full of hate and narcissism represents my country. I am so very, very sorry!
