

Columbus! Columbus!

Ward Ricker

Ward Ricker

$\text{♩} = 70$ D G A

Col - lum - bus, Co - lum - bus, oh, what did you do? You sailed o'er the o - cean so big and so blue. But when you ar - rived, all so strong and so brave, you plun - dered its goods and its peo - ple en-slaved. Oh, You Your

3 D G A G

6 A D Bm A D

9 A D A

why did you do it, turn them in - to slaves? How tor - tured hem sore, cut off nos - es and ears, cre - crimes and your hat - red such hor - ror in - still. To

11 D A G A

ma - ny of them did you send to their graves? Oh, at - ed a sa - ga did you sor - row and tears. You know what you did down my spine sends a chill. A 13 D A D A

why did you have to bring cap - tured their peo - ple, shipped he - ro you could be if sor - row and grief? Oh, them o - ver - seas. You kind - ness you'd shown. In -

15 D A D A D

could - n't you just have brought sold off their chil - dren, vile stead as a crim - i - nal joy and re - lief?
own - ers to please.
vile you'll be known!