

Roll Out the Millions

♩ = 110 C F Dm

The banks, our friends, our dear - est friends they've fal - len on hard
 The C - E - Os they work so hard each day to earn a
 They keep their pro - fits when times are good, but of course we un - der -
 They cal on us to help them out now in their time of 4

G C F Dm

times. They say we should not look back now or judge them for their buck. They know just how to help them - selves and their cust - o - mers to stand. We do not want to see them frown, we'll lend a help - ing need. How can we turn our backs on them, just be - cause of a lit - tle

8

G C F Dm

crimes. They call to us to give a hand[out]. Things sure are look - ing ...[bringluck]. When things go bad weshould all be glad to pitch in and pro - hand. Don't wor - ry that our child - rena decent edu - cat - tion will not greed? The wid - ow gave her mite, you know, and was blessed by the blue. Why not join in and help them out? We've al - read - y been screwed!

12 G C F Dm G

 vide a lit - tle wel - fare for our friends who live on the ot - her side.
 get. We'll glad - ly help you in your need so you can keep your priv - ate jet.
 Lord, so gave your tax - es glad - ly for the C - E - Os to hoard.

17 F G

♩ = 120

Roll out the mill-lions! Put up the bil-lions! Take from the poor give to the rich.

20 F G F G

Ro - bin - hood be damned! Come on you poor tax-pay-ers. Get in - to the game. Sup - port your lo - cal C - E - O - s, nev - er to be blamed!

23 C F G7 C