

Until Everyone We're Seeing

Ward Ricker

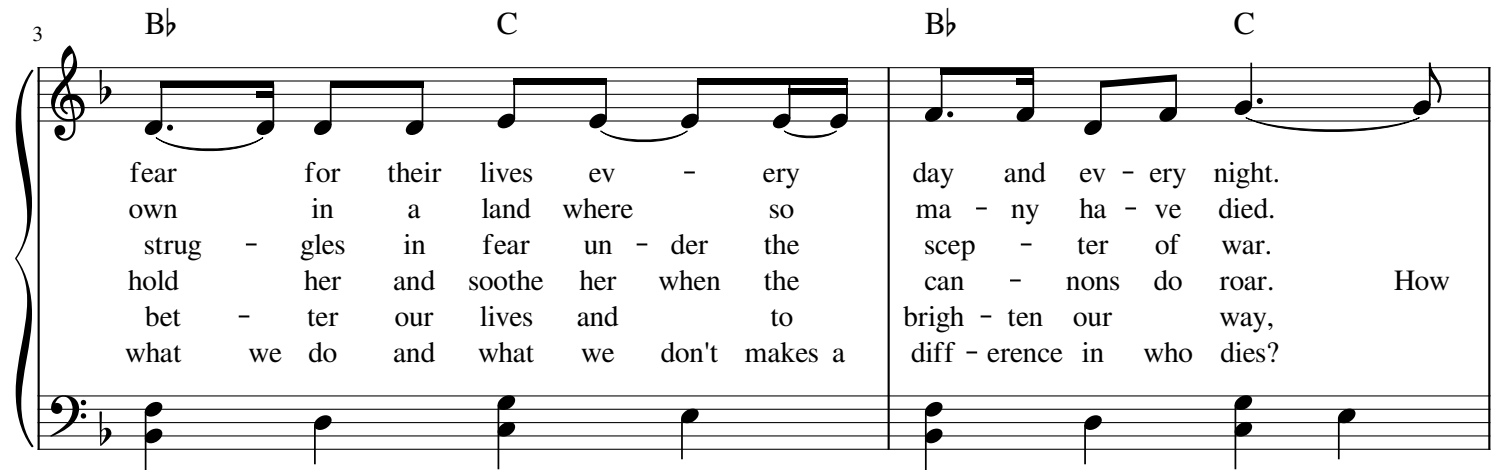

Ward Ricker

♩ = 90      B♭      F      B♭      F

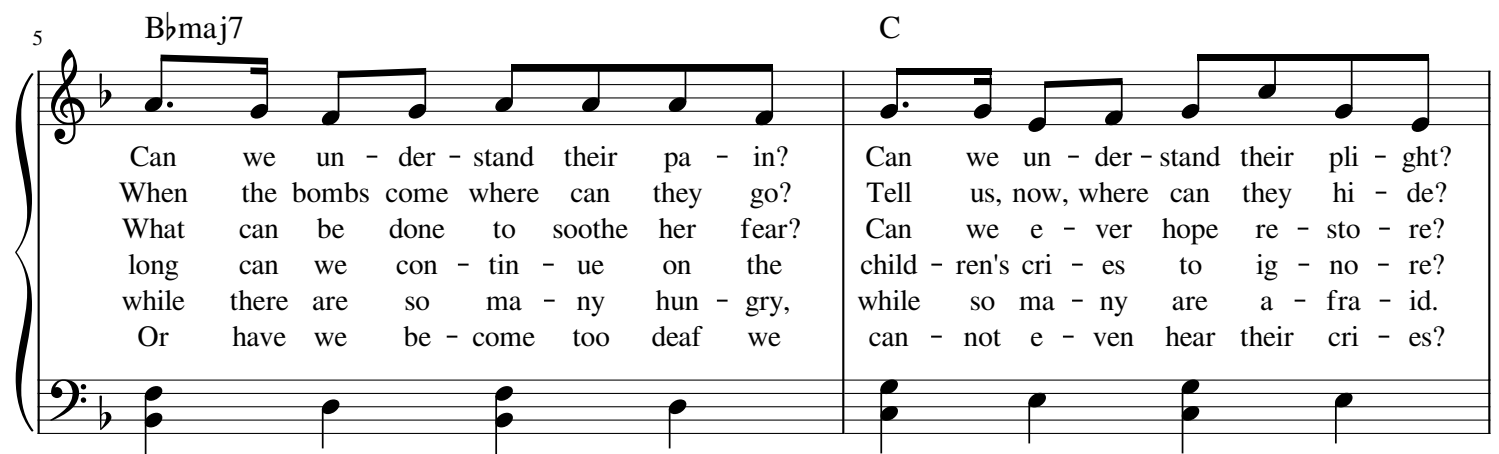

There are those in this world, ma - ny far from our sight, who There's a man who strives to pro - tect and pro - vide for his There's a wo - man who strives on a far dis - tant shore, who There's a child with - out moth - er or fath - er a - ny more to
We car - ry on our lives work - ing day af - ter day to
We know that ma - ny suf - fer, but do we re - a - lize that

3      B♭      C      B♭      C

fear for their lives ev - ery day and ev - ery night.
own in a land where so ma - ny ha - ve died.
strug - gles in fear un - der the scep - ter of war.
hold her and soothe her when the can - nons do roar. How bet - ter our lives and to brigh - ten our way, what we do and what we don't makes a diff - erence in who dies?

5      B♭maj7      C

Can we un - der - stand their pa - in? Can we un - der - stand their pli - ght?
When the bombs come where can they go? Tell us, now, where can they hi - de?
What can be done to soothe her fear? Can we e - ver hope re - sto - re?
long can we con - tin - ue on the child - ren's cri - es to ig - no - re?
while there are so ma - ny hun - gry, while so ma - ny are a - fra - id.
Or have we be - come too deaf we can - not e - ven hear their cri - es?

7      B♭                  Gm   F          C                  B♭                  Gm   F          C

How can we hear their plea? How can we learn to see? Let us

11      G                          F                          G                          C

la - bor for our bro - thers, let us care for all our sis - ters in the world, all the world. Un - til ev - ery - one we're see - ing, un - til ev - ery hu - man be - ing lives in peace, lives in peace.

15      G                          F                          G                          C