

Columbus! Columbus!

Ward Ricker

Ward Ricker

$\text{♩} = 70$ D G A D G A

Col-lum-bus, Co-lum-bus, oh, what did you do? You sailed o'er the o-ccean so big and so blue. But when you ar-rived, all so strong and so brave, you plun-dered its goods and its peo-ple en-slaved. Oh, You Your

5 D G A Bm A D

9 A D A D A

why did you do it, turn them in - to slaves? How ma - ny of them did you tor-tured hem sore, cut off nos - es and ears, cre - at - ed a sa - ga of crimes and your hat - red such hor - ror in - still. To know what you did down my send to their graves? Oh, why did you have to bring sor - row and grief? Oh, sor - row and tears. You cap-tured their peo - ple, shipped them o - ver - seas. You spinesends a chill. A he - ro you could be if kind-ness you'd shown. In -

12 G A D A D A

15

D A D A D

could - n't you just have brought joy and re - lief?
sold off their chil - dren, vile own - ers to please.
-stead as a crim - i - nal vile you'll be known!