

Day of Foreboding

Ward Ricker

Ward Ricker

$\text{♩} = 80$
Dm

Am

Dm

When Co-lum-bus ar - rived up on their shore, the nat - tives, they knew not, what Oh, what car-nage he wrought up on their land, with tor - ture and rape on a Slaugh-ter oh so wick - ed, reach-ing gen - o - cide. "No-where from us," said, Co-lum-bus, Some-day oth - er be - ings may come to our world. What good or ill to us will

4 Am Em Am

Dm

Am

Em

lie in store.
scale so grand.
"can you hide!
be un-furled?
Like a god he ap-peared to be, with sol-diers and ships three, but,
Serve the mas-ters ful - ly, bring them gold and rich-es free, and Sa-vag-es they are to us. Like an - i - mal they be.
Will they bring ad - vance-ment strong and great pro-sper - i - ty? Or

7 Dm Em Dm Em Am

Dm Em Dm Em

what he brought was greed for gold and chains of mi-se-ry. Oh, what he brought was greed for gold and when you fail then they will bring you death and mi-se-ry. Oh, when you fail then they will bring you Use them a - ny way you wish. Show them mi-se-ry! Yes, use them a - ny way you wish. will they like Co-lum-bus bring us chains of mi-se-ry? Oh, will they like Co-lum-bus bring us

10 Am

Dm

Am

Em

chains of mi - se - ry!
death and mi - se - ry!
Show them mi - se - ry!
chains of mi - se - ry?
Day of fore-bod-ing
and ig-no - mi - ny,

Day of Foreboding --Page 2

2

13 Dm Em Dm Em Am Dm Am

when the white man appeared from beyond the briny sea. Day of foreboding

16

Em Dm Em Dm Em Am

and ig-no-mi-ny, when Co-lum-bus ar-rived to bring tears and sla-ve-ry!