

From the Threat and Use of Force We Shall Refrain

Ward Ricker

Ward Ricker

4

F C B \flat

In nine-teen for - ty-five the na-tions came to-geth - er af - ter a great
No more they want - ed war to raise its aw - ful au - ra, so they did cre -
But since they signed that no-ble char-ter ma - ny bit - ter bat - tles have been
So come now let us join to ge-ther, now de-ter-mined that vis - ion to up -

8

C F C

war. De - ci - ded that they would cre - ate a world much bet - ter, and to that goal they -ate a sys - tem new to help a - vo - id war's great hor - ror, so their char - ter did fought. It seems that ma - ny na-tions, when the pres - sure moun-ted, their pro-mise they for-
-hold, de - ter-mined that we will bring to re - al - i - ty that pro-misemade so

12

F C B \flat

solve. To work to-geth - er peace-ful - ly to solve their con-flicts was their new re - course, and in all their do-ings mem-bers shall re-frain from the threat or use of war, and cause us to en-gage in act-ions we had sta-ted that we did ab - bane, and to re-mem-ber al-ways from the threat or use of force we shall re -

From the Threat and Use of Force We Shall Refrain --Page 2

2

16

C F C F C

-solve.
force.
-hor.
-frain.

From the threat and use of force we shall refrain. From the threat and use of force we shall re-

20

F C F C F Bb C F

-frain.

All the na-tions agreed to-geth-er from the threat and use of force we shall refrain.