

Judah. Tamar.

Ward Ricker

Ward Ricker

$\text{♩} = 76$
C Am G C

Ju - dah was a pat - ri - arch of one of Is - rael's tribes. His old - est son named Er took a gal O - nad did - n't want to give to Ta - mar a - ny child. He jerked off on the ground in - stead of Ta - mar was un - hap - py, 'cause she had - n't had a babe. She wait - ed 'til she had a chance to Ju - dah saw her and thought that she was a pros - ti - tute. He pro - mised her a goat if with him Sure e - nough then Ta - mar with a child then preg - nant turned. When Ju - dah found out he com - mand - ed Now you've heard a plea - sant sto - ry from god's ho - ly book. And had an - oth - er chance the things of

4 F G C Am G

Ta - mar for his bride. God struck Er down dead one day, he was such a dis - grace. His in her bod so wild. God was so pissed off that he struck O - nan dead, as well. Then once a - gain get laid. Ju - dah went to check on his goats in a yon - der place. Then she would rut and root. She took his seal and staff in trust from her fa - ther - in - law, who that she should be burned. Then she showed the staff and seal for ev - ery - one to see from god to take a look, be sure that you do tell your child - ren this sto - ry so sweet, so

7 C F G $\text{♩} = 60$ F C F C G C F C

young - er broth - er O - nan then stepped in to take his place. Ju - dah. Ta - mar. Ju - dah. Ta - mar.
Ju - dah kept his last son far from that un - luck - y belle.
Ta - mar ran a - head and wait - ed, veil up - on her face.
set a - bout to screw that girl whose face he ne - ver saw.
who it was that her new child got his pa - ter - ni - ty.
they can learn their mo - rals from god's won - drous book so neat.