

She's a Sister

Ward Ricker

Ward Ricker

$\text{♩} = 80$ F Dm C F

She's a sis-ter. She's a daugh-ter. She's a child of the earth. She's a cou-sin. She's a She's a sis-ter. She's a daugh-ter. She's a girl with a dream. She's a cou-sin. She's a grand-child. We were cheered by her birth. She's a mo-ther. She's a ni-ece. She's a grand-child. Tell me, why must she scream? She's a pre-cious hu-man be-ing. Oh, it

6 Dm C F Dm

11 C F Dm Bb

girl with a dream. With the beau-ty of her spi-rit, how bright could the world could have been me. Such hor-ror, and such tor-ment, how can we let it gleam. She is out there in the sha-dows. She is lost and a-lone. She is suff'-ring. She is be? We can reach her. We can help her. We can let her know that we see her, that we

16 C F Dm C F

22 Dm C F Dm

tor-tured. How long must she groan? They will use her. They'll a - buse her, and her hear her. We can love to her show. Let her kn - ow that she's wor - thy, that she

27 C F Dm Bb C

spi - rit they'll quell. They will force her to their wish - es, turn her li - fe in - to hell.
de - serves to be treat - ed gent - ly, with re - spect. She de - serves to be set free.

33 Bb C Bb C Bb C

Do we care that she is used by those so full of hate? Will we reach with arms of love to Do we care that ev - ery day she lives in pain and fear? Will we stop and let her know she

39 F C Bb C Bb C Bb

save her from her fate? How can we ne - glect the pain she fa - ces ev - ery day? How long will we is a child so dear? How can we con - tin - ue leav - ing her in fear and pain? How long will we wait be - fore con - cern we will dis - play?

46 C F C

wait be - fore we free her from her chains?