

Somebody's Daughter

Ward Ricker

Ward Ricker

$\text{♩} = 84$
C

F

Some-bo-dy's daugh-ter, some-bo-dy's sis - ter is out there, liv - ing scared.

5 C

G

Some-bo - dy's daugh-ter, some-bo - dy's sis - ter lives a life in fear en-sna - red.

9 F

C

F

Trapped, a-bused by Once a small and Through a world of all a-round her, it help-less child with pain and gri - ef she seems she has no
in - no-cen did tra - vels on her voice.
brim.
own.
Tricked, de-frau-ded
Then it happened;
Seen as a thing

14

G

F

in - to think-ings she has no oth-er choice.
some-thing thrust her in - to a world so grim.
to be us - ed ac-cus-tomed she has grown.
Will we fi - nd her? Will we he - lp her?
Do we wa - nt to know what hap-pened,
Will we bl - ame her? Will we sha - me her?

Somebody's Daughter --Page 2

2

19 C F C

Will we set her free?
un - der-stand her pain?
Make her suf - fer more? Or

Will we ca - re?
Do we ha - ve the will wereach out in

Will wedare to will to free her love to draw her give her li - ber - from herwo-rld in - through an o - pen

24 G

-ty?
-sane?
door?